

Mount Mather (Unit 86)

Snow, ice, and rock. The mountains in this unit are prominent features of the Alaska Range east of Mount McKinley. Mount Mather and Deception are dominant landmarks viewed from considerable distance.

This area is occasionally accessed by one of the mountaineering concessionaires in addition to a number of private trips. Good opportunities for wilderness experience, especially when there are limited overflights.